Lisbon, July 9.

THE King propoſes going in a ſhort Time with the whole Court to Bellem, where 'tis ſaid they will ſtay five or ſix Weeks. The Chevalier Branchamp, the new Pruſſian Reſident, has had his firſt publick Audience of his Majeſty, in which he delivered his Credential Letters. They have begun to repair the Fortifications of ſome of the Sea Ports in this Kingdom, which Work will be carried on with all poſſible Diſpatch till they are all put in a proper State of Defence, agreeable to his Majeſty's Orders iſſued ſome Time ſince for that Purpoſe. The Fleet from Fernambucca, that was expected ſome Time ago, is at length arrived in this Port, very richly laden, as well on the King's Account, as on that of the Merchants of this City. We have received Advice from Goa, that the new Viceroy arrived there the 20th of September laſt, and on the 27th of the ſame Month took Poſſeſſion of that high Office with all the State and Dignity imaginable.

Petersbourg, July 19. Her Imperial Majeſty, being willing to give her Miniſter at the Court of Vienna a new Mark of the particular Eſteem and Regard ſhe has for his Services, has ordered his Appointments to be augmented with four thouſand Rubles a Year. We have received Advice from Moſcow, that the Count de Raſoumoſki, Atteman or General of the Coſſacks, ſet out from thence on the 29th of laſt Month for the Ukraine, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that important Poſt.

Naples, July 20. 'Tis thought ſome important Negociation is on the Tapis between this Court and that of Vienna; and the rather, as Prince Eſterhaſy, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties, has of late been invited to ſeveral Conferences that have been held by the Miniſters of this Court. The two Gallies that made themſelves Maſters of the Tuneſian Galliot, under the Cannon of the Fort of St. Giglio, returned into this Port on Wedneſday laſt; and the other Ships of War, now out on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates, are daily expected.

Parma, July 22. The Infant Dutcheſs, who advances happily in her Pregnancy, was let Blood a few Days ago by Way of Precaution. 'Tis reported here, that ſeveral conſiderable Employments at Court will be laid aſide; and that the Number of Officers belonging to their Sereſte Highneſſes Houſhold will likewiſe be conſiderably reduced.

Milan, July 24. Count Chriſtiani, Great Chancellor of this Dutchy, having finiſhed the Negociation with which he was charged by the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, at the Court of Turin, is returned hither: A few Days ago a great Number of Banditti, who had been confined in the different Priſons of Lombardy, were conducted from thence to Trieſte, under an Eſcort of a Detachment of Grenadiers, from whence they are to be ſent into Hungary, in order to work at the Fortifications.

Gotha, July 30. Their Serene Highneſſes our Sovereigns ſet out from hence on the 22d Inſtant for their Palace of Ichterhauſen, from whence they went the ſame Night to Arnſtadt, in order to pay a Viſit to the Princeſs Dowager of Schwartzbourg Sonderſhauſen. The Hereditary Prince of Saxe Weymar, who has taken a Tour to Eiſenach, returned to the Caſtle of Fridenſtein on Monday laſt. We have had here for ſome Days paſt ſeveral prodigious Storms of Wind and Rain, accompanied with Hail Stones of a very large Size, which have done an infinite deal of Damage to the Fruits of the Earth in all the Country round about us.

Stockholm, July 30. The Inhabitants of this City have already named Meſſrs. Plomgreen and Kierman, to be their Deputies to the approaching General Diet of this Kingdom; the firſt having preſided in that Quality, in ſeveral preceeding Diets, and filled that Poſt with great Reputation. And we learn from divers Provinces of this Kingdom, that they are likewiſe proceeding to the Election of their reſpective Deputies, and that every Thing relating thereto is carrying on with the greateſt Tranquility imaginable.

Copenhagen, July 31. Yeſterday two Ships arrived in our Road from China, both ſaid to be very richly laden. M. de Moltzhan, lately appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Ruſſia, ſet out from hence this Morning for Peterſbourg. The King has appointed M. de John, his Majeſty's Miniſter to the Circle of Lower Saxony, to be one of his Privy Councillors.

Vienna, July 31. The 8th of next Month being fixed for their Imperial Majeſties Departure

[Price Two-Pence.]

ture from Preſbourg for the Camp at Peſt, ſeveral Hungarian Noblemen, who have Seats on the Roads through which they are to paſs, are already ſet out to make the neceſſary Preparations for their Reception. The Archdukes and Archdutcheſſes are to leave Preſbourg on Wedneſday next, in order to return to Schonbrun. 'Tis ſaid that the Empreſs Queen, before the Return of the Court from Hungary, will diſpoſe of the important Poſt of Primate of that Kingdom, which has been vacant for ſome Years; and, according to all Appearance, it will be given to the Archbiſhop of Koloczka.

Modena, Aug. 1. The Duke has given Orders for caſting, at our Arſenal, thirty Pieces of large Cannon, and ſome Mortars, and they are already preparing to begin the ſame. The Court is ſtill at the Caſtle of Rivalta, but will remove on Thurſday or Friday next to Saſſuolo, in order to paſs the Remainder of the fine Seaſon at that Place.

Dreſden, Aug. 2. The whole Court ſet out this Morning for Zedlitz, where it will ſtay till the End of the Week. The Deputies who are come hither from Dantzick, as well on Behalf of the Magiſtrates, as of the Burgeſſes, have already laid a Narrative of their Grievances before the Commiſſaries whom the King has appointed to enquire into their Complaints.

Hambourg, Aug. 3. M. Corthum, one of the Members of the Regency, has been elected Burgomaſter of this City, in the room of the late M. Spreckelſen, whoſe Corps was interred with great Funeral Pomp in the Church of St. Nicholas. We learn by the laſt Letters from Petersbourg, that, in Conformity to the Orders of the Empreſs, an Ordonnance has been publiſhed there, renewing that of the 11th of May 1744, which forbids, under very ſevere Penalties, the carrying of any Gold or Silver, or any Species of Ruſſian Money, out of any Part of that Empire. They write from Dreſden, that Field Marſhal Count Lowendahl, and the Counteſs his Spouſe, ſet out from thence on the 26th paſt, on their Return to France.

Berlin, Aug. 3. The Queen-Mother, accompanied by the Princeſs Amelia, went on Sunday Night laſt to pay a Viſit to her preſent Majeſty at the Palace of Schonhauſen, where there was a very grand Concert, at which were preſent the Prince of Pruſſia, and ſeveral Perſons of the Firſt Diſtinction of both Sexes. The ſame Day Count Bredow, Miniſter of State, and Grand Maſter of the King's Wardrobe, ſet out from hence for Vienna. His Majeſty has appointed M. de Tettau to be Major to the Regiment of Foot of the Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt. The Prince of Anhalt Bernbourg arrived here Yeſterday Morning, and the ſame Day waited on the two Queens, and met with a gracious Reception.

Franckfort, Aug. 5. The Pruſſian Officers continue to raiſe a great Number of Recruits in the Neighbourhood of this City; and they are often ſending them away for their reſpective Regiments. The Affair concerning the Church, which the Proteſtants have been for a long Time paſt ſolliciting to have built within the Walls of this City, continues in the ſame Situation it has been for ſome Time paſt; and notwithſtanding ſeveral Princes and States of the Empire have intereſted themſelves in Favour of the Proteſtants, yet the Magiſtrates ſeem quite ſtedfaſt in refuſing their Requeſt. A few Days ago a prodigeous Quantity of all Sorts of Merchandizes paſſed by here, upon the Mayne, for the Fair of Mayence, which is to begin To-morrow.

Hague, Aug. 10. The Deputies of the ſeveral Colleges of the Admiralty of this Country are arrived here from their reſpective Towns, and have already began their Deliberations. And To-morrow the States of Holland and Weſt-frizeland will open their Aſſembly. We learn from Delft, that M. Bleiſwyk, Councillor and Burgomaſter of that City, died there Yeſterday Morning, aged 72.

Kenſington, Auguſt 4.

This Day General Wall, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain, had a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

And afterwards a private Audience of his Royal Highneſs the Duke.

And afterwards a private Audience of her Royal Highneſs Princeſs Amelia.

To all which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.
